WOCKHARDT
HOSPITALS

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It is with eagerness and pleasure that I am writing this testament for Dr K. Purshottam MBBS, MD (Hospital Admin) who has been working as Manager - Hospital Administration at Kamineni Wockhardt Hospital Hyderabad from November 12, 2007 to August 15, 2008.

Wockhardt Hospitals is a chain of corporate Super specialty Hospitals in India under the Wockhardt Group, which is a global enterprise in the field of pharmaceuticals, biotechnology and healthcare for more than three decades. Wockhardt Hospitals have associated with Harvard Medical International for establishing world class Healthcare facilities in India. Currently the Group has multiple specialty Hospitals spread across India with a further expansion plan of adding 16 other hospitals to take their overall tally to 34 hospitals, they are one of the fastest growing chains of Hospitals in India today. It's more focused and provides services like Interventional cardiology, adult and pediatric cardiac surgeries. In Cardiology the services are extensive and comprehensive with a complete array of Diagnostic & Therapeutic Interventions. Coronary Angiography, be it a Daycare procedure, a regular trans femoral route procedure or a CT angiogram are all being offered to the public. Electro physiology Laboratory where EP Studies and RF Ablations are being done as a permanent cure for Arrhythmias (Heart Rhythm disorders). Other complex procedures include Percutaneous Device Closures for Congenital Deformities (PDA, ASD, VSD). In addition it also provides services in bone and joint replacement, minimally invasive and endoscopic surgical services, critical care and pain management, urology, nephrology, neurosurgery, Diabetology, plastic and spinal surgeries.

I have known Dr K. Purshottam since the time he joined our organization; at all times I have found him to be dependable, reliable, conscientious, honest, peace loving, courteous, extremely personable. I can confirm that he is a man of great integrity, good attitude, believes in teamwork, is extremely dedicated, systematic and impartial towards work. He seems equally comfortable with all his working peers. There have been appreciations from various feed back, senior doctors, nurses and ancillary staff for his good work. During his work at Wockhardt hospital he has worked towards Quality development Program; to bring in basics Awareness towards Quality management, used various tools on quality management effectively, Improvement in Patient Information, Improvement in Communication and reduced conflicts, improvement of patient discharge, reduction in error of medication, improvement of clinical services (Medical Management), team participation and team work development, improvement in process (General Administration). He has also taken keen interest in optimizing resources. He has effectively participated in clinical meetings and general meetings and his presence formally and informally has supported and lead for many developments in hospital. He has shown great inclination towards pursuing his academic work and research for which he has opted out.

I recommend and wish him good luck in his future endeavors and I am sure he would be an asset to any organization.
